
Reavley to the Rescue!

Winter Flu Vaccinations, Private Independent Prescribing PLUS Fit to Fly Service!

Flu Vaccinations
Why risk the misery of influenza this winter when your local pharmacy can offer the protection you need? Book your winter flu vaccinations today and shield yourself against influenza ready for the festive season ahead. FREE to those aged over 50 by March 2022, additionally those diagnosed with long term medical conditions or health and social care workers; there is a small fee for those who otherwise may not be eligible under NHS terms.

Children's nasal spray flu vaccinations are also offered for children who are not eligible under the free NHS school vaccination service. Available by appointment only.

Travel Clinic
Keen to book a holiday abroad? Our private travel clinic provides information and relevant vaccination for foreign travel as well as expert advice on over the counter medication and supplies you may need for your trip, including malaria medication. Please note, PCR testing is only available through our partnered Fit to Fly service, Goodbody Clinic.

Fit to Fly Service & Covid Testing
If you are planning a trip abroad our partnered Fit to Fly service based at Reavley Chemist will ensure you have everything you need in terms of PCR and antigen testing and associated certification to qualify for flights and travel overseas. Simply go to www.goodbodyclinic.com for more information, common frequently asked questions and to book your self administered test appointment.

Private Independent Prescription Service
For those who do not have time to wait for a GP appointment or are visiting the area and require temporary medical assistance, our independent prescribing service is invaluable. Our Superintendent Pharmacist can assess your condition and either refer you to your GP for further investigation or prescribe medication to alleviate symptoms. Urgent replacement or repeat prescriptions may also be provided.

Let Reavley Chemist help protect you and your family this winter, whether staying at home or planning an adventure overseas.
